FROM THE CHAIR OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Dear Friends in Christ,

We are happy to share with you the 2020 community impact report for the Catholic Foundation of Northwest Pennsylvania. A committed group of Catholic laypersons governs and actively leads the Foundation as board of directors. While united in a professional approach to the ministry of philanthropy, you'll see that the group is diverse in expertise, faith-life involvement, and regions in northwest Pennsylvania they call home. Together we are honored to faithfully steward over $21 million in assets secured in more than ninety endowments of the only community foundation in northwest Pennsylvania guided by Catholic values.

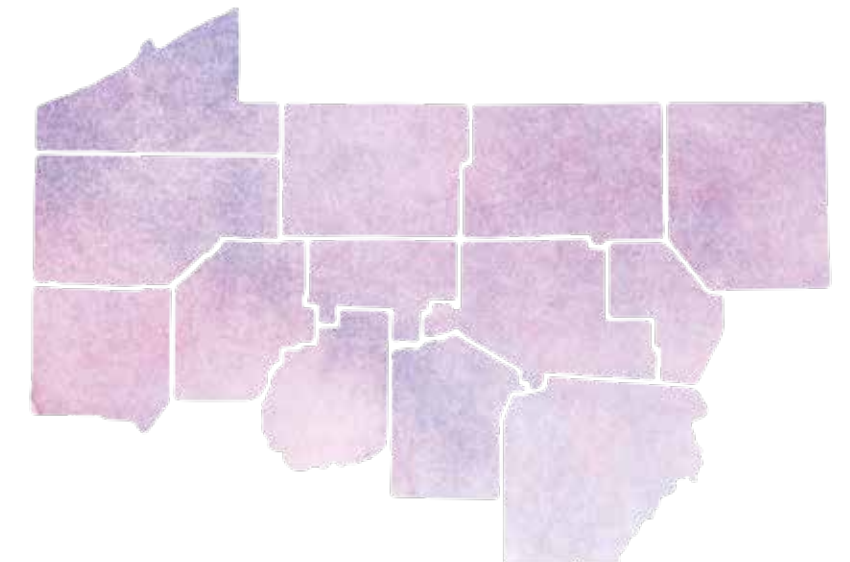

Endowments in our Catholic Foundation offer a consistent source of income to Catholic ministries, organizations, and programs in perpetuity. During the extraordinary year of pandemic in 2020, we were reminded that the Foundation is not only prepared for challenging times, it is designed for them. Throughout 2020 endowment distributions and grants were especially impactful, helping our Catholic community weather the early financial storm of COVID-19. As uncertain times persist, our ministry of philanthropy becomes ever more important.

The following pages demonstrate the growth of the Foundation and its impact on our Catholic community in partnership with donors like you. May Christ be our Light into the future as we work to build a legacy of faith for the next generation.

Ruthanne Beighley
Chair, Board of Directors

Lisa Louis, CFRE
Executive Director

“During the suspension of public Masses due to coronavirus, the funds were used to make up for financial losses in offertory income – very grateful!”

— Grateful Pastor

The Catholic Foundation of Northwest Pennsylvania is the only community foundation in northwest Pennsylvania guided by Catholic values and investment principles. The Foundation inspires and unites Catholics in supporting their faith community and creating a Catholic legacy, assisting donors to provide for the long-term needs of the Catholic ministries in their community. Both canon and civil law require that all funds placed in the Foundation be distributed according to the purpose named in endowment agreements. The Foundation is an independent 501(c)(3) corporation.

LIFE-LONG TIES LEAD TO ENDOWMENT GIFTS FOR TWO MINISTRIES

Mary Margaret and Jim Malue like to look through their backyard to see the bell tower of Our Lady of Peace church in Erie. Their parish is part of every day for them in this and many other ways. Daughters Jennifer and Katie attended the parish school, Mary Margaret and Jim led the parent-teacher organization during that time, and all four of them have served as lectors at Mass. From the parents of their daughters' friends to fellow parishioners in the pews, they have found many good friends in their thirty years at OLP. It is home. It is family.

When the Catholic Foundation's annual report arrived in their mail, Mary Margaret took a few minutes to scan through it. A photo of a familiar face on the Legacy Society page, Mary Ann Toohey, caught her eye and gave her pause to consider the information in the report.

She remembers thinking that she needed to save it to show her husband, Jim, because for a couple of years they too felt called to give back — to the parish that had given them so much.

In 2019 when traveling through the Holy Land, the Malues met Bob Crowley from Warren, Pennsylvania, a fellow pilgrim on the trip and a member of the Catholic Foundation board of directors. As their new friendship developed, Bob introduced the Malues to the concept of legacy giving through endowments.

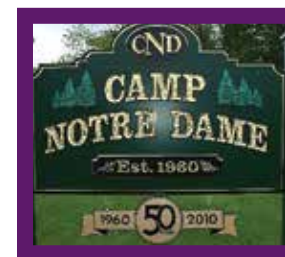

"Before talking to Bob, we were thinking about just making a monetary gift directly to OLP," said Jim. "When Bob explained the difference between donating to the parish and setting up an endowment instead, I realized the endowment was what Mary Margaret and I wanted for OLP. The idea that the gift would be in perpetuity and could be added to by others was attractive to us and exactly what we were looking for."

With insight Bob provided and a copy of the annual report in hand, Jim and Mary Margaret reached out to Lisa Louis, executive director of the Catholic Foundation, to set their plan in motion. While reviewing the list of already existing endowments with Lisa, the Malues were happy to see one for Camp Notre Dame named in honor of fellow CND colleague, Paul Speice. So, they opted to both establish the Malue Family Endowment for Our Lady of Peace Parish, and to add to the Paul F. Speice Program Endowment for Camp Notre Dame. Mary Margaret explains, "Camp Notre Dame is so meaningful to our entire family. Jim mowed the lawn there as a teen, I was a volunteer camp nurse for many years, the girls were camp counselors, and we all were campers at some point in our lives."

Jim and Mary Margaret Malue were inspired to give by faith, community and friendship built throughout the years. Seeding a new endowment, and giving to help build another, fulfills their desire to give back. They hope to serve as an example, encouraging others to also give in this way.

BEQUEST BOOSTS ENDOWMENT BY $1.27 MILLION

The Catholic Foundation celebrated the largest gift in its history received from an individual during 2020: a $1.27 million bequest from the estate of Msgr. Salvatore Mitchell. Funds exclusively support tuition assistance for Kennedy Catholic High School students with priority given to the youth of Church of the Good Shepherd in West Middlesex. The bequest enhanced the education endowment Msgr. Mitchell established during his lifetime to generate scholarship funding annually.

Those who knew him say the Monsignor Salvatore Mitchell Education Endowment captures his personality in its generosity and simplicity. Msgr. Robert Smith, retired vicar general of the Diocese of Erie, served as an altar boy at St. Joseph Parish in Oil City when Msgr. Mitchell was an assistant pastor there. He later offered the homily at Msgr. Mitchell's funeral.

Msgr. Mitchell lived out his priesthood joyfully, faithfully, and tirelessly — for 74 of his 99 years of life, according to Msgr. Smith. "He was always an integral part of people's lives. He had unshakable belief that good people, working together could do great things," Msgr. Smith said in his homily.

Regarding the extraordinary nature of the gift, Msgr. Smith said "Many could bear witness to Msgr. Mitchell's frugality, and he was also very sharp when it came to investing his money."

Msgr. Mitchell spent many years as pastor of Church of the Good Shepherd. He was well-known in the area and deeply connected to the people in the Shenango Valley.

Catholic Foundation board member, John Matune of Sharon, reflected on his personal experience with Msgr. Mitchell. "As a graduate of Kennedy, I was glad to get to know Msgr. Mitchell after graduation. Now involved on the board of the Foundation, I am honored to play an active role in stewarding his generous gift."

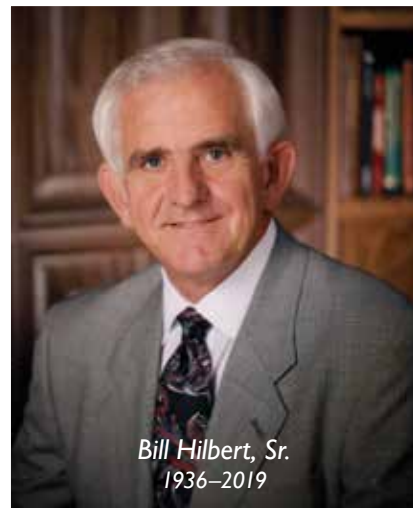

Membership in the Catholic Foundation Legacy Society is offered to individuals who choose to establish an endowment fund or leave an estate gift that will provide benefits to a Catholic ministry in perpetuity through the Catholic Foundation of Northwest Pennsylvania.

Their giving is a sign of a faithful steward who acknowledges that their personal life, as well as all of creation, is a gift from a loving and gracious God. In response to this gift, they are participating in such a way that expresses love, gratitude and respect for God, others, self and for our faith community.

For their vision and generosity, we offer sincere thanks!

“As each one has received a gift, use it to serve one another as good stewards of God’s varied grace.”

ENDOWMENTS

The Catholic Foundation offers you a way to leave a legacy uniquely aligned with your Catholic values and beliefs. An endowment is a fund designated to provide stable, ongoing financial support to your parish, school, or organization – forever. Funds are pooled in a well-diversified, socially responsible portfolio to maximize cost savings and investment performance. Anyone can create an endowment at the Catholic Foundation which will support causes near to their heart for generations to come.

“The sound of the renovated organ would be music to Marie’s ears.”

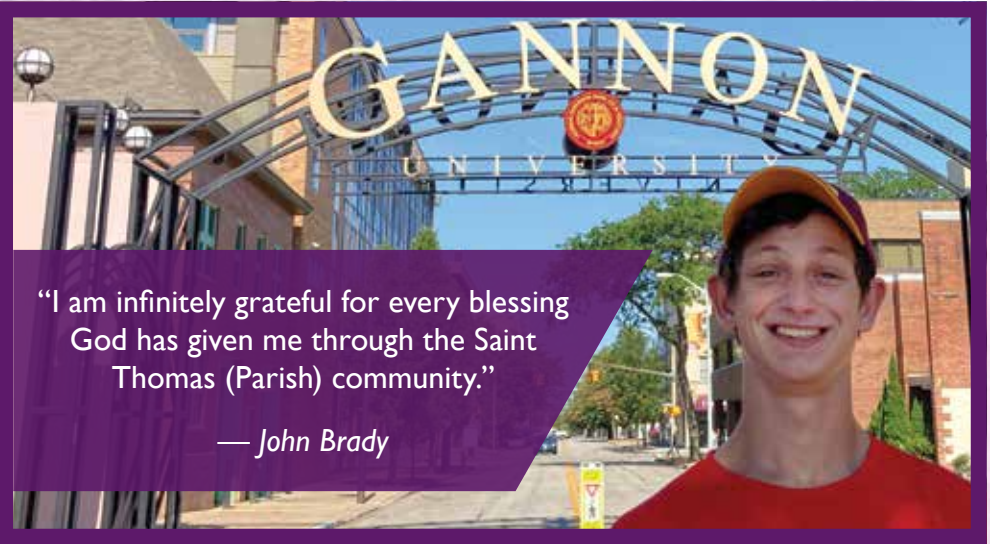

Dr. Stephen Cenedella often speaks fondly of his wife, Marie, who passed away in 2010. Through the Fox and Cenedella Endowment, he and Marie give generously to their parish, Saint Patrick in Franklin. In January 2020, their annual grant contributed to the down payment for restoration work on the parish’s 1937 Tellers organ. Reflecting on Marie’s passion for historical preservation, Doc appreciates this use of the funds.

— The Reverend Leo J. Gallina

Endowments noted in bold were established in 2020 or 2021 (as of 6/30/2021).

As a freshman at Gannon University, John Brady felt the support of his parish community in a special way. His involvement and faithful service over the years at Saint Thomas Parish in Corry was rewarded with a scholarship from the Saint Thomas the Apostle Parish Memorial Scholarship Endowment held at the Catholic Foundation. In this way, John’s parish is helping him fund his college education and offering their support.

AGENCY ENDOWMENTS

Catholic parishes, schools, and organizations establish agency endowments with the Catholic Foundation to ensure their mission continues on for future generations. An established endowment gives donors another way to support the organization they love and the confidence that their gifts will have lasting, long-term impact.

Catholic Social Service	$60,912
Clergy Health & Welfare	$63,545
Other	$6,263
TOTAL	$304,770

BE THE SPARK!

Donations in any amount designated for any endowment are welcome at any time. Specifically, donations designated for our Education Endowment and our Evangelization Endowment increase our capacity to award grants for creative and impactful lifelong faith formation and education programs and projects throughout northwest Pennsylvania today and for future generations.

“When the opportunity for a grant came up, I hadn’t considered applying because I’ve never done one before. Thanks to the encouragement of a priest friend, I went ahead with it. I was amazed at the ease of applying. Thank you so very much for providing me with the opportunity to enrich my parish’s offering of formation experiences.”

ENHANCING FAITH FORMATION FROM A DISTANCE

Saint Catherine of Siena Parish in DuBois received a grant for online distance learning offered through the University of Dayton’s Virtual Learning Community for Faith Formation. During the spring of 2020 fourteen participants from six parishes in the Eastern Vicariate took a course titled “Scripture: The New Testament.” The goals were to promote adult faith development and formation and help prepare future catechists.

“The five weeks of that class were a time of blessing and growth.”

— Mary Pat Rossi
Saint Catherine of Siena Parish

Participant Barbara Ross says, “Thank you so very much for extending this course to me. I found it so informative and helpful. I have learned so much more about the Holy Scriptures.”

Father Ross Miceli views “Word on Fire ENGAGE,” a digital communication and evangelization tool purchased with a grant to Saint Boniface Parish in Kersey.

Both pastor and parishioners appreciate the grant that helped purchase a new sign for Holy Rosary Church in Erie.

A grant to Seton Catholic School in Meadville enabled upgrades to classroom technology and technology infrastructure.

Twelve interactive classroom touchscreen displays were purchased with a grant to Mercyhurst Preparatory School in Erie.

BARBARA BEHAN WOULD LOVE THIS!

As superintendent of Catholic Schools in the Diocese of Erie, Jim Gallagher has an important job at a critical time for Catholic education. Faced with limited resources to lead thirty diverse schools that educate over 5,000 students, Gallagher works strategically and with a broad approach.

“We identified a need to update the assessments plan used throughout the diocese at both the elementary and high school levels,” he explains.

The Immaculate Heart of Mary Education Endowment that Barbara Behan established in 2008 is helping to fund this important initiative. With deep faith and gratitude to God, Barbara wanted to grow Catholic educational environments of rich faith and academic rigor. “The potential for these assessments to improve instruction, build collaboration, and enhance the education received by all Catholic school students in the diocese is very exciting,” says Gallagher.
